What is IELTS?

IELTS is the International English Language Testing System to evaluate English Proficiency. This is the world's most popular test system to validate English Proficiency. More than 2 million IELTS tests are conducted every year globally. IELTS tests the candidate's ability to listen, read, write & speak the language fluently. If you are planning for higher education or global migration you need to have a higher IELTS score to prove your English proficiency.

The IELTS exam results are accepted by the majority of managements including educational institutions, professional associations, employers, and governments around 140 countries in the world. On clearing the IELTS exam, you can emigrate and elevate your lifestyle to new circumstances and opportunities. It is easy to clear the IELTS exams when you get into a professional institute. IELTS Coaching in Chennai at Nivedita Academy provides the necessary training to the candidates to clear the exams easily.

Academic Module / General Training Module:

- The Academic Module is intended for those wishing to enrol in universities and other institutions of higher education.

- The General Training Module is intended for those planning to undertake non-academic training or to gain work experience, or for immigration purposes.
- The Listening and Speaking sections are the same for both the modules, Reading and Writing sections differ.

It's not like a test where you memorize things and then write them on the paper and hand it over to the examiner. It's more like a skill, which you need to prove by doing a thing in a right manner. How can you learn a skill?

If you are planning to appear in an IELTS test, focus on improving your basic English skills first.

First improve your everyday reading and listening, your speaking and writing. IELTS is not a difficult test for those who have regular reading habit and have acquired sufficient vocabulary . Apart from these, good exam strategies and lots of learning tips are also required. Nivedita Academy is the right institution to offer everything you need to secure your desired score.

You will also find out about the kinds of topics that come up in the IELTS test. Focus on topics related to education, health and the environment that frequently come up in the IELTS test. Nivedita Academy provides you with all the required materials for getting ideas or points for the essays.

ELIGIBILITY FOR IELTS

There are two types of training in the IELTS they are academic level and general level. The purpose and the plan decide what kind of certification to be obtained. To study Engineering, Medical or any master program in the UK, New Zealand, Canada, and Australia it is essential to have scored in the IELTS exam from IELTS Chennai. To migrate or to travel for the purpose of a job it is essential to have certification. The immigration bodies, British Council, University of Cambridge, IDP, IELTS Australia, professional bodies, and government agencies manage the IELTS exam for the standards to be maintained.

- Candidates with 16 years and above age groups are eligible to appear for the IELTS exam.
- He or she should have a passport to travel to foreign countries.
- The reason for traveling has to be mentioned with the supporting documents.
- Education pattern should be 10+2+3

Finally, IELTS certification with good score is essential to pursue education, job or visit houses to see relatives or friends.

Academic Training:

- Listening (40 questions) – 30 minutes
- Reading (40 questions) – 60 minutes
- Writing (2 essays) – 60 minutes
- Speaking – 10 to 15 minutes.

General Training:

- Listening (40 questions) – 30 minutes
- Reading (40 questions) – 60 minutes
- Writing (2 essays) – 60 minutes

IELTS Listening Test:

IELTS listening exam is conducted to test your listening skills. You will be asked to listen to four different recordings and answer 40 different questions and each carries 1 mark. The time duration for this test is 30 minutes. Also, you will be provided with ten minutes to transfer the answers to the answer sheets. The audio will be played only once. The audio includes a range of accents like British, American, New Zealand, Australian, and Canadian. The four different types of recordings are listed below:

- Conversation between two people set in a day to day social context.
- A monologue related to routine social context, interactions like information and local facilities.
- Conversation between four people who are set in the education or training context (Discussions related to assignment)
- Monologue on academic subjects, for example, university lectures.

Various types of questions will be asked in the form of Multiple choice questions, Note completion, Form Completion, Sentence completion, Summary completion, Diagram labeling, Table chart, Map, and Short-answers question. The same pattern is followed for both the IELTS Academics and General Training.

To enhance your listening skills in English, you need to cultivate the habit of listening to English speakers and have regular training. IELTS Coaching in Chennai and Trichy at Nivedita Academy helps the candidate to enhance their listening skills and trains the candidates efficiently to read, speak, and write in English.

IELTS Speaking Test:

IELTS Speaking test is conducted to check your fluency in English. The Speaking test will be conducted for around 11-15 minutes. IELTS Speaking test can be divided into three parts. The three parts of the speaking exam are listed below.

- The examiner will ask general questions about yourself. This session will be more about self-introduction and it will last for five minutes.
- In the second session, you will be given a card which has the topic you are going to talk about. You will be given two minutes to think about the point you are going to talk about. You are also provided with paper and pen to make notes of the points.
- In the final round, the examiner will ask questions based on what you spoke in the second round and elaborates the discussion further with relevant questions. The final round will last for five to six minutes.

The speaking test is conducted by the certified IELTS examiners to check your fluency, coherence, pronunciation, grammar accuracy, and vocabulary.

To enhance your spoken English skills professionally, you need a professional institute. IELTS Coaching in Nivedita Academy at Chennai and Trichy helps the students to speak fluently in English and hone key skills like reading, writing and listening in English.

IELTS Reading Test:

IELTS Scoring, IELTS Results , IELTS Exam Registration , On the IELTS Test day

A Band Score for each of the four modules as well as an overall score is recorded on the Test Report Form. This allows receiving institutions to clearly identify the candidates' strengths and weaknesses. These Band Scores are recorded on the Test Report Form along with details of the candidate's nationality, first language and date of birth. The Test Report Form indicates whether it is for an Academic or General Training candidate. Each Band corresponds to a descriptive statement giving a summary of the English of a candidate classified at that level. Overall Band Scores can be reported in either whole or half Bands.

IELTS Band Score Calculation:

The IELTS score is calculated between 0-9. You will get a separate band score for each skill and also an overall band score of the skills, reading, writing, speaking and listening. You can also get a .5 score as well as 5.5, 6.5, 7.5.

In case your overall score is an average of 6.25, your score will be increased to 6.5.

If the overall score is an average of 6.75, then your score will be increased to 7.

When your overall score was 6.1, then your score will get down to 6.
